THE MEXICAN SITUATION

From best reports obtainable it appears the Mediators in their plan for the restoration of peace in Mexico, will ask for the elimination of Huerta and the appointment of a peace commission composed of five men, two to be selected by Huerta, two to be selected by Carranza and the fifth one to be selected by the Mediators. This would look fair on its face but if you should go deeper than the surface it might not look so well. The fight in Mexico is a fight of the common people against the aristocrats. It is a fight of tenants against landlords. It is a fight to tear the poor class from bondage and slavery. The Constitutionals claim, if victorious, that they expect to give to every Mexican who will live upon it and cultivate it, 160 acres of land, and the question arises if this is left to a peace commission how will this principle be preserved. The condition in Mexico and the countries represented by the Mediators, is practically the same. The Republics of Brazil, Argentina and Chile are practically countries that are dominated by the rich and aristocratic class and as the Mediators are naturally representatives of the upper class and as they appoint one of the Mediators and Huerta two and the Constitutionals one, two then evidently the principals for which the Constitutionals are fighting would be jeopardized. Villa may be a villain, and perhaps there is no doubt but that is true, he may be an assassin, and there is plenty of evidence to prove this fact, he may be an outlaw and certainly his past makes this conclusive, but he has never been called a fool and the Mediators will find that they have a man above the ordinary to deal with when they approach him with their peace agreement.

Bert Dixon, of the Anadarko National Bank, still refuses to pay the checks drawn by the Treasurer on the school funds on deposit in his bank, for warrants that are due and payable, and the warrants continue to draw 6 per cent interest. But what's the difference, the people pay the freight.

SPIRITISM SAID TO BE DEMONISM.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the communications received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demon origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits personate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible, are thoroughly acquainted. He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived ones to pray, do penance, etc. This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demonic control. Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victim, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise, are given. The price of the little book is but five cents; it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein. A SYMBOLIC DEATH AND RESURRECTION

Real Baptism Is Burial of Human Will Into God's Will.

Baptism a Symbol of Consecration. The Old Creature Buried in Baptism. The New Creature Arises to Walk in Newness of Life—Baptized With Christ's Baptism—Importance of the Symbol—Greater Importance of the Real Baptism—Dead to Everything Except the Will of God.

May 17.—Pastor Russell, whose Photo-Drama of Creation not only presents the story of man's redemption, but also outlines earth's history from its beginning, preached today upon Baptism. His text was, "Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."—Romans 6:4.

Water baptism, the Pastor declared, is merely a picture of the real baptism. The Apostle explains from various points of view the real baptism, without which the symbol is a mere form. Whoever receives the real baptism, thereby becomes a member of the Body of Christ, the New Creation; but whoever has it not is not a New Creature, a member of the Body of Christ, though he were baptized in water a thousand times.

The Pastor then showed that the real baptism is into Christ's death, not into water. This baptism takes place at the moment of full consecration to God—complete surrender to do the Divine will, even unto death. "This burial of the will into God's will is reckoned to be the death of the human being. Therefore the Apostle says to the Church, 'Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.' Therefore the consecrated are no longer counted as human beings, but as New Creatures in Christ. This burial of the will into the Divine will is instantly followed by the begetting to newness of life—to a new nature."

Water Baptism as a Symbol. Next the Pastor discussed water baptism. Reviewing the various theories of the different denominations, he explained wherein these are not in harmony with Scripture. Neither sprinkling nor pouring could in any way be considered a picture of death and burial. He called attention to the fact that the Greek word baptizo signifies immersing, covering, plunging; and that wholly different words are used in the Greek when sprinkling, pouring or raining is meant.

The Pastor then discussed immersion as set forth by the Baptists and the Disciples. Both denominations have the right form; but the Disciples preach the baptism taught by John the Baptist, not baptism into Christ; and the Baptists emphasize the symbol rather than the reality—consecration unto death. Apparently the speaker sustained his point; for he certainly harmonized all the Scriptures bearing upon the subject.

The Real Baptism Into Christ. Having established the facts that water baptism is a symbolic picture of consecration, and that immersion is the Scriptural form of baptism, the Pastor next considered the subject as presented in Romans 6. There the Apostle sets forth the deep significance of burial with Jesus. From the moment of consecration the Christian should walk in newness of life, and his daily course should be altogether different from that of the world.

The Pastor then explained this walking in newness of life. To the Christian, "old things have passed away"; old hopes, ambitions, motives, etc. These have given place to new hopes, higher ambitions, better motives. To these the first general Law is given—the Golden Rule. To be the Lord's representative, every Christian must love his neighbor as himself—must deal with him as he would have that neighbor deal with him.

How the Christian Fulfills the Law. The Pastor showed that God has made a provision for the Church which He did not make for the Jews. Israel had a typical mediator, who could not offer real atonement for their weaknesses and have them judged according to their mind—their intentions. But, through Jesus Christ, the Father has made this very arrangement for the Church. When these keep the Golden Rule to the best of their ability, the righteousness of the Law is fulfilled in them.

For in his consecration now, the Christian agreed to do much more than merely keep the Golden Rule. He consented to give up all of his earthly interests—to do the Divine will and to drink the cup which the Father pours for all of Jesus' footsteps followers. He must accept whatever the Father permits to come to him; he neither pours his own cup nor buries himself. This is beautifully pictured in water baptism. There the candidate submits to the will of the administrator. Figuratively the Lord lets the consecrated one down into death, and will one day raise him to perfection of life.
